

WORLD FORESTRY CONGRESS 2009

SESSION 1.3 : FOREST RESORATION

Thursday 22 October – Friday 23 October

PROGRAMME

Thursday October 22

15:00 – 16:30

Presentation of selected papers

Moderator: Eduardo Mansur, ITTO

Secretary: to be confirmed

Introductory remarks by Moderator (8 min)

Presentation of voluntary papers: (8 min each)

1. ESTABLISHING THE PLATFORM FOR A CARBON SEQUESTRATION MARKET IN SOUTH AFRICA: THE WORKING FOR WOODLANDS SUBTROPICAL THICKET RESTORATION PROGRAMME by C. Marais, R.M. Cowling, M. Powell, & A. Mills
2. LANDOWNER BENEFITS FROM REPLACING EUCALYPTUS STANDS WITH STONE PINE PLANTATIONS IN HUELVA, SPAIN by Paola Ovando, Pablo Campos, Gregorio Montero, Ricardo Ruiz-Peinado
3. EXPERIENCES OF ZONING AND RESTORATION OF THE MANGROVE SWAMPS IN THE CARIBBEAN COAST OF COLOMBIA by Heliodoro Sanchez
4. A PROPOSED METHODOLOGY FOR PLANNING ECOLOGICAL RESTORATION PROJECTS IN THE CACHOEIRA, BRAZIL by Padovezi; Aurélio; Lima; Renato A.F.

Questions from audience to presenters (15 min)

Discussion questions for presenters and then open to members of audience (25 min)

- Prioritizing the benefits to be derived from forest restoration – who decides and how?
- How can research findings best be converted into policy change and adapted practices?

Summary of key points and questions to be taken forward to the next session and outline of Friday session by Moderator (10 min)

Friday October 23

Moderator: Tim Rollinson, Forestry Commission of Great Britain
Secretary: Jonathan Taylor, Forestry Commission of Great Britain

Part 1: 8:30 – 10:00

Panel on current opportunities for forest restoration, including REDD+

Introductory remarks and recap of key points from previous day by Moderator (10 min)

Presentation of position paper: Stewart Maginnis, IUCN (10 min)

Panel discussion. (50 min including 5-minute statement from each panellist)

Panelists:

Stewart Maginnis, IUCN

Jerilyn Levi, US Forest Service

Eduardo Mansur, ITTO

Two additional panellists (to be confirmed)

Questions for panellists:

- What are the most important opportunities for advancing forest restoration?
- How should we respond?
- What do we know or need to know about forest restoration to help us respond?

Comments from members of the audience (15 min)

Summary of key points and questions to be taken forward after the coffee break and outline of Part 2 by Moderator (5 min)

10:00 – 10:45 Coffee Break

Part 2: 10:45 – 12:15

Brainstorming a future vision for forest restoration

Opening remarks by Moderator (5 min)

Brainstorming session (up to 75 minutes)

Participants: All. Authors from Thursday session and panelists from Friday Part 1 will begin then the floor will be thrown open to all members of the audience.

Brainstorming questions:

- How many hectares of restored multifunctional forest should we expect to see and seek to achieve in 10 years?
- How would each of us have contributed?

Wrap up summary of key points from Thursday and Friday sessions – main messages – and closing remarks by Moderator (10 min)